

Article 20.04 of the Collective Agreement states:

“Faculty members have the right to remove themselves from any situation in which they perceive an immediate threat of violence to themselves by a student or by another employee of the University. Faculty members have the right to remain away from the workplace if they continue to perceive themselves to remain under threat until such time as the Employer has taken action to resolve the situation”

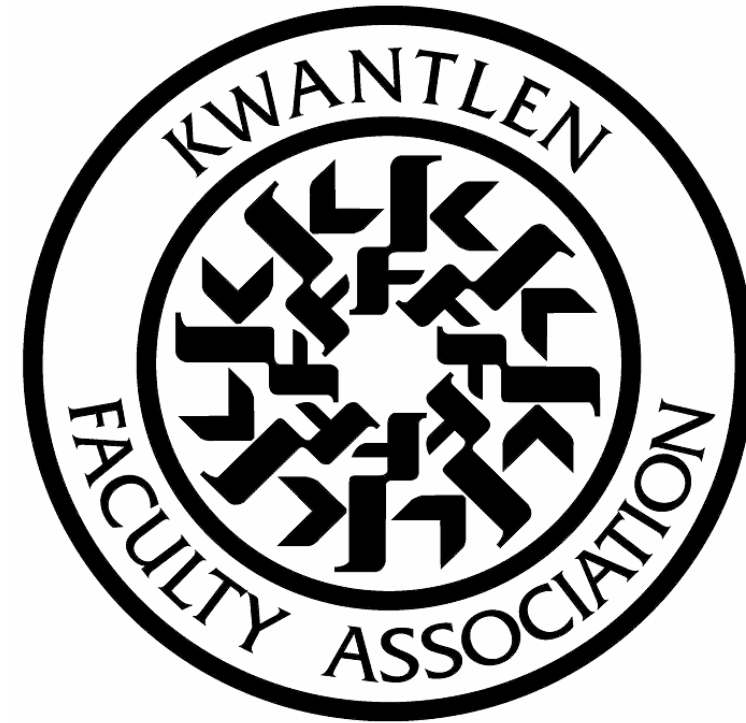

Invoking this clause requires Faculty to inform their Dean as soon as possible. In addition, contact your KFA.
