Monday, March 18:
1. Xʷməθkʷəy̓əm (Musqueam): Ancient and Contemporary Stories
   - A public symposium Melville Centre for Dialogue, 1:30 – 4:30 pm, Richmond
   - Featuring:
     o Mr. Terry Point, Traditional Musqueam Story-teller and Historian, and Aboriginal Program Coordinator for Richmond School District
     o Screening of the 2018 Documentary “All Our Father’s Relations” with producer Sarah Ling (with Chinese subtitles)
     o Hosted by Lilach Marom, KPU Dept of Educational Studies, Mike Ma, KPU Dept of Criminology, and Seema Ahluwalia, KPU Dept of Sociology
2. “Colonization Road” at the Conference Center, Surrey Campus 3-6 pm
   - A screening of the documentary followed by interactive discussion
   - presented by KPU Indigenous Students Council, 3-6 pm

Tuesday, March 19
1. “Kwantlen First Nation History” with KPU Elder-in-Residence Lekeyten, and KFN Elder Cheryl Gabriel, Langley Campus (Room and Time TBA)
   - Hosted by Kathy Dunster, KPU Dept of Urban Ecosystems
2. “Land Rights and Solidarity with the Unis’tot’en at Surrey Campus Gathering Place 5-7 pm
   - Featuring presentations, a panel discussion and refreshments
   - Hosted by KPU Indigenous Student’s Council
3. Thinking Through Mandatory Indigenous Content: A Group Discussion
   - Join us for some conversation about the challenges and benefits of mandatory Indigenous content courses at KPU and beyond
   - Gathering Place, Surrey Campus 11am-12pm
     - Hosted by Jennifer Hardwick, KPU Dept of English

Wednesday, March 20
   - A public symposium at KPU Surrey Conference Center, 1:00 – 4:00 pm featuring writers from the Federation of Post-Secondary Educator’s resource Whose Land is it Anyways?
   - Featuring:
     o Territorial Welcome from Coleen Pierre, Katzie First Nation
     o Introduction to event (Seema Ahluwalia)
     o Opening comments from George Davison, President, Federation of Post-Secondary Educators (FPSE)
• Sharon Venne, (Nehiyaw): Indigenous playing active role in national and International struggles of Indigenous peoples, drafter of United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples
• Russ Diabo, Kanienkehaka (Kahnawake): Senior Policy Advisor to Assembly of First Nations, Senior Policy Advisor for Algonquin Wolf Lake First Nation, editor/publisher of First Nations Strategic Bulletin, and leading voice in the decolonial struggle with Defenders of the Land Network
• Oyate Anawizipi, Sicangu Lakota: Lakota Elder and carrier of traditional knowledge including language, ceremony, and oral history
• Refreshments provided by Salishan Catering

2. “Indigenous perspectives on gender and sexuality” at The Gathering Place 1-2 pm
   • Part of the “Indigenous Talking Circle Speaker Series
   • Featuring Saylish Wesley, Sto:lo / Tshimshian transwoman and educator speaking on the intersections of gender, sexuality and Indigeneity
   • Presented by Len Pierre, KPU Manager, Aboriginal Services

3. Suffer the Little Children: Genocide, Indigenous Nations and the Canadian State at the Gathering Place, 4:30–5:30 pm (Book launch and signing)
   • Author Presentation with Professor Tamara Starblanket, Co-Chair, North American Indigenous Peoples Caucus, UN Expert Witness to the Committee To Eliminate Racism (CERD) and Dean of Academics, Native Education College

4. “Case Studies of Indigenous Experiences of Genocide” at the Gathering Place 5:30–6:45 (Surrey)
   • Applied Research Seminar with Tamara Starblanket and Students of Soci 4320 (Indigenous Perspectives on Genocide)
   • Refreshments provided by Salishan Catering

5. “The Truth and Reconciliation Commission (Canada)”
   • hosted by Irina Ceric and CRIM 1107 students
   • Tuesday, March 19 4-7pm, Richmond Campus

Thursday, March 21:

1. “Treaty Rights and Indigenous Law” Richmond Campus, Rm. 2005 10:00–11:20
   • An interactive interactive discussion hosted by Seema Ahluwalia and students of SOCI 1125 R10 (Richmond)

   Richmond Campus, Rm. 2020 11:30-12:50
   • A webinar featuring Russ Diabo, IDLE NO MORE founder Sylvia McAdam, and University of Alberta Professor Janice Makokis followed by interactive discussion
   • Hosted by Seema Ahluwalia

3. “Water is Life: Indigenous Stewardship of the Land” at Melville Center for Dialogue, Richmond 1-4
   • A public education symposium featuring
     • Territorial Welcome from Elder Ruth Adams, Tsawwassen First Nation
- Members of Wet'suwet'en Nations
- Andrew Frank, KPU Dept of Environmental Protection
- Seema Ahluwalia, KPU Dept of Sociology
- Mike Ma, Dept of Criminology and KPU Social Justice Centre
- “Water is Life: Standing Rock Solidarity Song” Oyate Anawizipi (Sicangu Lakota)

4. “Indigenous Women’s Resistance” (Location TBA) 1-3 pm
   - featuring a performance by Butterflies in Spirit and dialogue with members of Virago Nation

5. Nature Walk with Fern Gabriel Kwantlen First Nation at Kwantlen First Nation Reserve, Fort Langley BC 11:00 - 1:00 pm
   - Presented by Seyem’ Qwantlen
   - Featuring sharing of traditional teachings, territorial /or land law
   - Hosted by Nate Szymanski, KPU Dept of English

6. The Truth and Reconciliation Commission (Canada)
   - hosted by Irina Ceric and CRIM 1107 students
   - Tuesday, March 19 4-7pm, Surrey Campus

Support provided by:

Federation of Post-Secondary Educators (FPSE)

Faculty of Arts Education and Advancement Fund

President’s Diversity and Equity Committee

Kwantlen Faculty Association

KPU Indigenous Students’ Council

KPU Aboriginal Services

KPU Department of Sociology

KPU Social Justice Centre